

THE NEWSLETTER OF THE

University of Virginia

Women's Club

Fall Term, 2018

Letter from the President

Dear Ladies,

This coming academic year, 2018-2019, will be the 70th ANNIVERSARY of our UVA WOMEN'S CLUB. LET'S CELEBRATE!!! Be sure to get in on the fun! If you have not already done so, send in your dues today.

The BIG NEWS this year is the updating of our Website, <http://www.indorgs.virginia.edu/womensclub/>. Click on this website and be astonished at all the information you will find. You can also Google "UVA Women's Club," and the site will come up. We owe a huge debt of gratitude to Rosemary Grisham and her husband Charles for this wonderful asset.

I urge you to Google the UVA Woman's Club Website. The website will be the way to know our club schedule, as well as to send updates immediately on the latest changes to any schedule. Just click on the menu to check on your Interest Group. If you do not have a computer, call someone in your Interest Group, or call me at 977-7286.

One great addition to our website is the membership roster, accessible by password. See the emailed version of this newsletter for the password. Any new member who did not make the Handbook deadline before publication can be added here without a problem. This password is in reference to the glorious sterling club treasure that the original UVA Faculty Wives Club acquired and engraved with the date commemorating its founding year, 1949. You need to remember this password, as it is about the only information NOT on the UVA Women's Club Website. The roster also now can include two phone numbers. Be sure to add your phone numbers and email address to the membership form you mail in along with your $25.00 dues made out to UVA. Women's Club, mailed to UVA Women's Club, P.O. Box 5714, Charlottesville, VA 22905.

To enlighten us on the history of the website, I did a little digging and I asked Kris Bean and Laura Hoffman to fill me in. This is what I learned: Women's Club had an online presence in the early 90s. The designers of the early website are unknown at this time, but eventually Verna O'Connell asked her husband, John O'Connell, to sponsor Women's Club so that the website could be located on a UVA server and that its web address - its URL - would end in virginia.edu. Because the club is not an official part of the University, our website is grouped with the websites of other "independent organizations" that are typically student-run. That is why the website URL includes the term "indorgs." Later, in 2010, Kris and Laura worked as a team to redesign the early website and add pages on various club activities and groups. Laura had experience designing and maintaining her own website, but Kris had to learn Dreamweaver from scratch, with Laura's help. They had to acquire UVA digital IDs and passwords to have access to the UVA site. James Hilton, Molly Hilton's husband, helped guide them through the process. Upon John O'Connell's retirement, Kris's husband, John Bean, assumed the sponsorship of the website. Upon the recent retirement of Kris's and Laura's husbands, a new sponsor was needed. The UVA Women's Club is so fortunate to have Charles Grisham, Rosemary's husband, willing to step into this role. Due to his background in publishing his own books, he has used this knowledge to our advantage.

Plan now to attend our FALL MEETING, Wednesday September 12, 2018, from 1:30 to 4:00 at St Paul's Episcopal Church, Ivy. Come on time so you will have an hour to visit with friends, enjoy dessert together, and sign up for the various Interest Groups. You may want to bring a check book to pay the small fees associated with some groups or events, and also bring candy, or a donation for candy, to help with the Trick or Treat on the Lawn, one of our annual On-Grounds Philanthropy Projects.

We are so fortunate to have such knowledgeable and capable members willing to lead our Interest Groups and for members willing to host these events. Please be sure to thank them for their effort and help out in any way you can. I urge you to take advantage of at least one Interest Group activity: Antiques, Book, Crafty Ladies, Garden, Gourmet~Foodies, Hiking~Walking, and/or Trips. Not only will you have a chance to learn, but also cement friendships that will last a lifetime. Specifically, invite any new qualified friends to join. Remember, this may be the only way they know about the Club. Our club is a wonderful way to connect to the UVA community. If you would like to establish another interest group, please contact me. Your ideas are always welcomed!

We have the privilege of Professor A. E. Dick Howard speaking to us this year. As a continued celebration of the 800th anniversary of the Magna Carta, his topic will be "Magna Carta's American Adventure." Professor Howard is one of the preeminent scholars on the United States Constitution. His biography is so interesting we have included an abbreviated form below.

The Newcomers Coffee will be held Thursday, October 11, 10:00, at the home of Ramona Shugart, 107 Cannon Place, Charlottesville, 22901-2109. This is a wonderful way to introduce new ladies to our club. Please consider who you would like to invite and plan to come along with them.

Edith Weber and Liz Marshall have already scheduled our fall trip October 18, 2018, to Poplar Forest, Thomas Jefferson's retreat in Bedford, Virginia and to lunch at Peaks of Otter Restaurant. Send a check for $90 made out to Edith Weber, to her home at 1308 Lester Drive, Charlottesville, 22901-3144. If the trip is full, she will put you on a list in case there is a future opening. October 18th is two months away, and occasionally someone's schedule will change and they have to drop out.

We will celebrate again at our Valentine Tea, Feb 13th at Darden. Lou Williams and Marlene Stoner have arranged a glorious room for our party. More details will follow.

Additional club-wide events will include another Newcomers Coffee, March 29, 2019, an Evening at the Theatre musical, "The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee," April 26, 2019, 7:00 at the Culbreth Theatre, and the May Spring Luncheon, Greencroft Club in Ivy. Remember to check our website: <http://www.indorgs.virginia.edu/womensclub/> for our calendar and details.

I particularly want to thank Gale McCartney, Grace Giras, Rosemary Grisham, the Officers, Board Members, and each of the Interest Group chairs for all their work.

I am looking forward to seeing you September 12th!

Theodora Carey

Nominating Committee and President's New Officers Report:

New Officers Elected

The first tasks for UVA Women's Club's new President Theodora Carey were to present a thank you gift - a lovely pewter picture frame with a special photograph - to outgoing President Sima Brown and to adjourn the May 2018 Spring Luncheon Business Meeting. At that time, Sima automatically moved into the position of 2nd Vice President for the coming year. In the week immediately following the Luncheon, by email vote of the club membership, Rosemary Grisham was elected as Women's Club's new 1st Vice President for the 2018-2019 year. Thank you, Sima, for a great year! Congratulations, Theodora and Rosemary! The excellent planning and sage foresight of our Club's Founding Mothers provides for the elected 1st Vice President to observe and serve the President for a year and then automatically move into the role of President for the next year. The immediate past President then becomes 2nd Vice President - a role that assists and advises, and also chairs the Nominating Committee in the Spring of her 2nd Vice President term. This transition of "presidents" and all newly elected officers takes place with the Spring Business Meeting election. It's a very good "system" that has kept Women's Club thriving for 70 years!

The email vote also elected Sandra Rustin to the office of Corresponding Secretary, the position previously held by Rosemary Grisham. Karen Rich agreed to continue in the role of Recording Secretary, and Grace Giras will serve again as Women's Club Treasurer. Congratulations, Sandra! Thank you, Rosemary, Karen and Grace!

Thus, the new Officers for the 2018-2019 year are: President: Theodora Carey, 1st Vice President: Rosemary Grisham, 2nd Vice President: Sima Brown, Recording Secretary: Karen Rich, Corresponding Secretary: Sandra Rustin and Treasurer: Grace Giras.

The email vote elected three new Board Directors to serve the three year 2018-2021 term, as well. Congratulations, Susan Howell, Clara Jane Snipes and Marlene Stoner! Thank you for your willingness to serve UVA Women's Club in this capacity. We appreciate the past service of Mary Jo Ayers, Robin Cherry and Liz Marshall, who just completed their three year terms. Thank you, ALL!

We also want to thank Yuhua Li for her service to Women's Club. Yuhua requested this summer that the Nominating Committee find a replacement to complete the third and final year of her term as Board Director. The Nominating Committee named, and the Executive Committee voted for Mary Ann Pace to fill Yuhua's position for one year. (Per Article V, Section 3: The Executive Committee shall have the power to fill any vacancy occurring between elections.) Thank you, Yuhua! Congratulations, Mary Ann, and welcome to the UVA Women's Club Board of Directors!

The Officers and Board of Directors comprise the Executive Board. The Executive Committee also includes the Standing Committee Chairs, who are appointed by the President. See the full Executive Committee list on the last page of this Newsletter. We are grateful for all of the women willing to serve UVA Women's Club, and we anticipate another successful year!

Thomas Jefferson and the Peaks of Otter - a connection?

The Peaks of Otter are three mountain peaks in the Blue Ridge Mountains named Sharp Top, Flat Top and Harkening Hill that overlook the town of Bedford. Manmade Lake Abbott lies in the valley between the three peaks behind the Peaks of Otter Lodge and Restaurant.

Thomas Jefferson once wrote, "the mountains of the Blue Ridge, and of these the Peaks of Otter, are thought to be of a greater height, measured from their base, than any others in our country, and perhaps in North America." Of course this was later found to be untrue, but not before Virginia had sent stones in 1852 from the peaks to be its contribution to the Washington Monument.

At the Fall Meeting, Hear Our Special Speaker:

Professor A. E. Dick Howard

Topic: "Magna Carta's American Adventure"

At our first meeting of the year, Women's Club will enjoy guest speaker Professor A. E. Dick Howard, constitutional law expert. In the wake of Magna Carta's 800th anniversary, Professor Howard will speak on the topic of the Great Charter's influence on American constitutionalism in his presentation "Magna Carta's American Adventure."

Here are some of the highlights from Dick's bio:

A. E. Dick Howard is the White Burkett Miller Professor of Law and Public Affairs at the University of Virginia. Born and reared in Richmond, Virginia, Professor Howard is a graduate of the University of Richmond and received his law degree from the University of Virginia. He was a Rhodes Scholar at Oxford University, where he read philosophy, politics, and economics. After graduating from law school, he was a law clerk to Justice Hugo L. Black of the Supreme Court of the United States.

An authority in constitutional law and active in public affairs, Professor Howard was the executive director of the commission that wrote Virginia's current constitution (July 1, 1971) and directed the successful referendum campaign for its ratification. He has been counsel to the General Assembly of Virginia and a consultant to state and federal bodies including the U.S. Senate Judiciary Committee. From 1982 to 1986 he served as counselor to the Governor of Virginia, and he chaired Virginia's Commission on the Bicentennial of the United States Constitution.

Professor Howard has been twice a fellow of the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars, in Washington, D.C. He has served as president of the Virginia Academy of Laureates and has received the University of Virginia's Distinguished Professor Award for excellence in teaching. James Madison University, the University of Richmond, Campbell University, The College of William and Mary and Wake Forest University have conferred upon him the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws. In the fall of 2001, he was the first Distinguished Visiting Scholar in Residence at Rhodes House, Oxford.

Professor Howard is the author of a number of books, articles, and monographs. These include The Road from Runnymede: Magna Carta and Constitutionalism in America and Commentaries on the Constitution of Virginia, which won a Phi Beta Kappa prize. More recent works include Democracy's Dawn and Constitution-making in Eastern Europe.

Professor Howard has briefed and argued cases before state and federal courts, including the Supreme Court of the United States. He is a regular guest on television news programs; during the Senate Judiciary Committee's hearings on the nomination of Robert Bork to the Supreme Court, Professor Howard provided gavel-to-gavel coverage for the "McNeil-Lehrer News Program." He also interviewed the justices for the film being shown to visitors to the Supreme Court's building in Washington.

Often consulted by constitutional draftsmen in other states and abroad, Professor Howard has compared notes with revisers at work on new constitutions in Brazil, Hong Kong, the Philippines, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, Poland, Romania, Russia, Albania, Malawi, and South Africa. In 1996, the Union of Czech Lawyers, citing Professor Howard's promotion of the idea of a civil society in Central Europe, awarded him their Randa Medal—the first time this honor has been conferred upon anyone but a Czech citizen. In 2004, the Greater Richmond Chapter of the World Affairs Council conferred on him their George C. Marshall Award in International Law and Diplomacy.

In January 1994, Washingtonian magazine named Professor Howard as one of the most respected educators in the nation. In 2007, the Richmond Times-Dispatch and the Library of Virginia included Professor Howard on their list of the "greatest Virginians" of the 20th century.

In 2013 the University of Virginia recognized Howard with its Thomas Jefferson Award — the highest honor given to faculty members at the University. The award commended Howard "for advancing, through his character, work, and personal example the ideals and objectives for which Jefferson founded the University."

In 2016, Governor Terry McAuliffe, in announcing the restoration of voting rights to convicted felons, recognized Howard for his consultation on the matter as "the foremost constitutional authority in Virginia."

Dick is also the husband of Mary Howard, Women's Club Member and Past President.

Philanthropy Committee Report

Ongoing Projects

UVa Maxine Platzer Lynn Women's Center

In addition to the Trick or Treating on the Lawn Fall Philanthropy Project, Women's Club enjoys an ongoing relationship with the UVa Maxine Platzer Lynn Women's Center. Since our relationship began seven years ago, gifts from Women's Club to the Women's Center have helped with printed materials, furnished the Center's "Room to Breathe" - a quiet room used for students who need "a moment of privacy, safety, and quiet," and to support the Center's sexual assault prevention programs across Grounds.

In addition to Women's Club's annual contribution of $200 to the Women's Center (voted on at the August 9, 2016 UVa Women's Club Board Meeting), Women's Club members also make personal donations. For Women's Club to keep an account of our contributions to the Women's Center each year, our Philanthropy Co-chair Becky Williams keeps track of our gifts and sends them to the Women's Center.

You are welcome to give a gift any time during the year, but please send your check, payable to the Maxine Platzer Lynn Women's Center, to Becky Williams, 1936 Blue Ridge Drive, Charlottesville, 22911 and she will count it as part of Women's Club's Grand Total for the year and send it on the Women's Center.

Meets First Tuesdays

Walking~Hiking Group

10:00 am

This group meets on the first Tuesday of the month for non-strenuous hiking. We hike in beautiful places with beautiful people. This year we are trying something new: If weather prevents us from hiking, we will schedule the same hike for the following week. Of course, with all that exercise we are almost obliged to go out for lunch afterwards. We usually decide where to lunch as we hike. Of course no one is obligated to join us for lunch.

Although we hope that you will sign up for this interest group at the fall meeting, we will notify the entire membership of upcoming hikes each time. That way anyone with an interest in this fun group can join us any time. Following is a TENTATIVE schedule. Each month we will send out a notice about the location and will ask for an RSVP so that we will wait for you. Happy Hiking!

We encourage all members to come by the table at the Fall Sign-up Meeting and let us know if they are interested. Activities this year can include potluck dinners, fixed-menu dinners, wine-and-cheese experiences, or "x and y" experiences — as a group we fill in the blanks and have fun with food and, optionally, drink. This year we may mine the menus and recipes from the last 30+ years of our club's experiences. Once we duplicated an Inn-at-Little-Washington menu and might repeat that, for example. Come by! Sally
